

DIVISION OF WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Subject: Federal Bonding Program	Issued:	Approved by:	Page: 1
---	----------------	---------------------	-------------------

Federal Bonding Program Frequently Asked Questions

Question: How much does Federal Bonding assistance cost?

Answer: Services are free.

Question: Who must request assistance through the Federal Bonding Program?

Answer: Assistance must be requested by the employer.

Question: How does an employer learn more about the program?

Answer: Visit or contact the local Missouri Career Center and request assistance.

Question: What jobs are covered?

Answer: Any job as long as the employee is of legal work age, the job is legitimate and the job is full-time (averaging at least 35 hours per week). In addition the employee must have his/her federal taxes automatically deducted each pay period.

Question: Can the Federal Bonding Program help in all hiring situations?

Answer: No. Although the Federal Bonding Program can provide assistance in most cases, not everyone will need bonding services.